

Just to let you know...

In English we have been learning how to write instructions for how to use our Crazy Inventions!

The children have continued to design their crazy inventions, which will be made from 'unsuitable' materials. Why not ask your child what their invention is and why their chosen material does not have the suitable properties for purpose.

Homework: Make your Crazy Invention!

Your child needs to build their Crazy Invention at home and they have two weeks to do it. It should be handed in on Friday 11th November, in time for display in our Materials Exhibition on Tuesday 15th December at 2pm.

Maths

In Maths this week we have been learning about fractions. We have explored what an equivalent fraction is and how to convert tenths and hundredths to a decimal fraction. If you would like to support your child further with their fractions work, log on to the mymaths website and go to Level 4/Number /Fractions.

Dear Parents,

The children need to have their play costumes in school by Monday ready for the performances.

Also, please make sure you are reading 3x a week with your child and recording it in their Reading Journals, which need to be in school every day.

Please note that there will be no more Reading Carousel during the last two weeks of term.

Many thanks,

Julia, Jo and James.
