Curriculum

This week the children have continued to work really hard on writing their diary extract, as if they were an evacuee. They were great at reflecting on and evaluating all their learning in Year 3, thinking about their highlights and areas they wanted to work on. Some children have also written about their feelings on the Sleepover. Work is being consolidated on column addition and column subtraction. The children are now working on coordinates and will be plotting their Flat Evacuee's journey on a map of Britain. A great deal of preparation went into the WW2 Tea Party and the children had a fantastic learning experience.
