

Just to let it snow...

This week we have been looking at Narnia stories, linking them to Christmas and looking at Aslan as an allegory for Jesus.

We have been really impressed with the insight the children have shown when discussing issues such as temptation.

Our topic books are coming along nicely and we're really pleased with the work that the children have produced.

Dear Parents,
Merry Christmas to everyone, we hope you have a fantastic break and enjoy a well earned rest! Thank you so much for your support this term and your generous gifts and Christmas greetings!
Congratulations to all of year 6—you've had a brilliant start to the year and we look forward to seeing you back in the new year.

Monday 5th January is an INSET day, school starts back on Tuesday 6th. There will be a talk for parents in the hall on Wednesday 7th January at 2.30pm, to discuss the sex education programme taking place the following week.

If you are stuck for any stocking fillers, any books on the human body will be hugely helpful for next term's topic!

Best wishes
Alison, Bec, Mary and Sarah
