

Curriculum News:

English:

In English this week the children have enjoyed looking at the 'Just So Stories' written by Rudyard Kipling. Using the same writing technique, they have begun planning and writing their very own Just So Stories.

Maths:

The children have continued to work with coins and money this week. They have progressed to working out change when buying different items.

FLUFFY:

The Year 3's had a fantastic experience in their first ever FLUFFY Friday at HT. They took part in a huge number of exciting activities, ranging from downhill biking to stained glass window making!

There will be no set spelling list for the children to practise over half term. They will be tested on a random selection of spellings patterns that we have covered from this half term.

Reminders:

On Tuesday 20th October it is the Year 3 No No Noah Performance. The show will kick off in the Chapel at 2:30pm so please arrive at 2:20pm in order to get a seat.

Please ensure that if your child is playing the part of an animal in the Year 3 performance that they have a costume in school by Monday at the latest. This needs to be in a named carrier bag.

Wednesday 21st October is the last day of the half term School will end early at 12:15pm.
