

Year 5 Group Room

There has been quite a lot of discussion this week about 'A Smuggler's Song' a poem by Rudyard Kipling. The children deduced from the language and illustrations that the poem was written a long time ago. From this the children were inspired to type a short story from the perspective of a smuggler.

We were very impressed by the spelling test results this week. It was evident that the children had learnt them. Next week's words will be:

hopeful, dreadful, wonderful, beautiful, powerful, harmful, forgetful, careful - for homework use each word in a separate sentence.

Spelling books should be taken home on Mondays and returned on Thursdays. We do remind the children to take their books home but cannot be responsible for making sure they are put into their bags.

Next week's English focus will be around the subject of castles.

Have a great weekend and don't forget to keeeeeeeep reading!

Kind regards,

Lynn and Tina
