

Just to let you know...

Dear Parents,

A big thank you to all of you for continuing to read with your child three times a week and for supporting them in their homework.

Have a lovely weekend.

Best wishes,

Julia, Sheila and Jess.

'Read for my School'

Just to let you know that the Year 4 classes have signed up to take part in the 'Read for my School' initiative, which will run from January to March.

The competition website www.readformyschool.co.uk is hosting a free online library of over 100 books by top children's authors. When they participate your child will be able to read those books online, earning points for the school and 'points mean prizes'!

Reading Group Code: 66507

Username: Your child's name

Password: Apple4s (for class 4S), Apple4jn (for class 4JN) and Apple4j (for class 4J).

In English, we have been writing newspaper articles, including details about all of the different Roman leisure pursuits, including: chariot racing, gladiator fights and bathing!

Spellings of the Week imperfect, inactive, irrelevant, irregular, impossible, believe, strength, reign, equivocal, century, analogue.

Extension: inexpensive, irresponsible, inconsiderate, inexperience

In maths this week we have been using arrays (grouping) and the bus stop method of division.

Why not ask your child where they might use division in real life?

There has been a homework set to reinforce your child's learning. Please see their Reading Journals.
