This week the children played a game to encourage them to use different connectives in their written work. They also wrote sentences using different connectives, eg. so, then, because, while, as, before. A listening task was completed using prepositions eg. between, under, above. Following this they drew a familiar scene and will be encourage to use prepositions to write about it.

Your children should know which colour reading book they are on and how to change them. Please read with them as much as possible.
