Just To Let You Know

27.02.26

Dear Parents & Carers,

The children have returned to school after the half term holiday ready to jump back into their learning!

We are looking forward to meeting with you at Parents Evening next week. If you haven't made an appointment to talk to your child's teacher, please get in touch to arrange a convenient time.

Next week, we are excited to be taking part in a school-wide National Year of Reading Book Week. There are lots of activities next week to look forward, including visiting the children from Reception on Monday and the staff's 'Story Lounge' experience!

Book swap

A book swap is taking place on Thursday 5th March in the school library. Your child will visit with their class and will be welcome to take a book – or two! If you have any pre-loved reading books which you would like to donate, please send them into school on Wednesday 4th or Thursday 5th. The books must be KS2 age-appropriate. Thank you!

English

Adjective noun phrases and Gandalf's magic MAPOS spell came in very handy this week, as we wrote picturesque descriptions of our very own dragons. We planned and designed our own dragons and then wrote detailed descriptions in our books. The children are anticipating their work being placed into an AI programme that will then generate an image from their text!

A Note on AI Image Creators:

Like all technology, AI image creators can be fun, engaging, and incredibly useful. However, it's important to use them responsibly. It was wonderful to see the children anticipating their writing being turned into an AI image, but it's essential to also have a conversation at home about the importance of being thoughtful and cautious if/when engaging with AI platforms online. Encouraging safe and appropriate use will help them make the most of these tools while navigating the digital world responsibly. Thank you for your support with this.

Homework and spellings

The spelling list that will be tested on Monday are: graceful, gracefully, cheerful, cheerfully, delightful, delightfully, frightful, frightfully

Homework is back to normal so please encourage your child to ensure they have their homework on the due in days. It is important that we are ensuring your child is staying on track with their homework tasks.
