

Developing Players. Growing Confidence. Building a Love of Hockey.

A new Hockey Academy in Guildford led by a double Olympian to develop the next generation of players

- New co-ed hockey academy serving ambitious young players across Surrey and Hampshire.
- Led by Sarah Robertson, a double Olympian with elite-level coaching experience.
- Open to boys and girls with a focus on skill development, confidence, leadership and performance.
- Provides a clear pathway from grassroots participation to elite competition.

Launching officially on 3 November.

GUILDFORD NORTH DOWNS HOCKEY ACADEMY

From 3 November 2026, GND Hockey Academy will provide a year-round coaching programme for young hockey players through a combination of:

- Performance coaching
- Development sessions
- Specialist holiday camps

Based at Tormead School's Urnfield Sports Ground, the Academy will create an accessible pathway for boys and girls wanting either additional hockey opportunities or a high-performance development programme.
